OUR CORE VALUES

We Believe...

- In the inclusion of all people in decision making about matters that impact them
- In the power of organizing for grassroots leadership and participatory democracy in all facets of our social justice work
- In using our collective power to influence decision making and force public business to be done in public
- In honest dialogue as the means to resolving the conflict of values that arises when diverse people address issues of common concern
- In the power of advocacy to bring about structural change necessary for dismantling systems of poverty and oppression
- In applying social justice principles to create equitable access to rights and opportunities
- We are called to act boldly and courageously to achieve our goals.
